

JAMES BEARD PUBLIC MARKET RECEIVES $500K DONATION, REACHES $3M FUNDRAISING MARK

Barry Menashe and his family donates to the James Beard Market Fundraiser, helping to catalyze the growth of the market's development. The funds will support the purchase of a 17,290-square-foot building at 622 S.W. Alder St. in downtown Portland, formerly home to a Rite Aid.

In addition, the market plans to lease ground-floor space at 610 S.W. Alder St., creating a combined footprint of nearly 40,000 square feet. This expansive project will house 40 new small businesses, including a teaching kitchen, event space, and a variety of local offerings such as a restaurant, bakery, fish market, butcher, cheese shop, wine merchant, and farm stalls, showcasing the best of Oregon's culinary and agricultural heritage.

As a new neighbor for various Menashe Properties buildings, such as the American Bank Building, 610 Building, and the Electric building, Barry Menashe Family Fund contributes to the success of the new market to help promote community support amongst the local businesses in the Pioneer Square area of Downtown Portland.
